BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Jerry Bouquot, DDS, MSD, DABOMP, FAAOMP, FICD, FADI, FACD
Professor and Chair, Department of Diagnostic Sciences
University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston
Adjunct Professor, West Virginia University School of Dentistry
Morgantown, West Virginia

Dr. Bouquot received his D.D.S. and M.S.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota, with postdoctoral fellowships to the Mayo Clinic and the Royal Dental College in Copenhagen, Denmark as the recipient of a Career Development Award from the American Cancer Society. He holds the record as the youngest oral pathology chairman in U.S. history and for almost two decades he was Professor and Chairman of the Department of Oral & Maxillofacial Pathology, West Virginia University.

During that time, he received that university's highest teaching award and highest award for service to humanity, in addition to the Lifetime Achievement Award from its alumni association. He has received the St. George National Award, the highest award given by the American Cancer Society, for lifetime efforts in cancer control, and was recently awarded the Bridgeman Distinguished Dentist Award from the West Virginia Dental Association. His is listed in numerous Who's Who publications.

He is now Professor and Chair of the Department of Diagnostic Sciences at the University of Texas Dental Branch in Houston. He remains an Adjunct Professor of the West Virginia University School of Dentistry, and is the Director of Research for a private research center, the Maxillofacial Center for Education and Research. He is the Director of a large, federally certified biopsy service for the dental profession, receiving tissue samples from dozens of states. He has been the Dental Director of the West Virginia Bureau for Public Health, a Senior Visiting Scientist of the Mayo Clinic, a Special Advisor to the National Institutes of Health, an Honorary Member of Dental Informatics of the University of Göteborg, Sweden, and the Oral Cancer Control Coordinator for the state of West Virginia. He is a Consultant to Pittsburgh Children's Hospital and the New York Eye & Ear Infirmary. He has been awarded Fellowship in the International College of Dentists, the American College of Dentists and the Academy of Dentistry International, the American Academy of Oral & Maxillofacial Pathology, and is on the Scientific Advisory Boards of 2 U.S. corporations and a European pharmaceutical company.

Dr. Bouquot has more than 240 published papers, abstracts and book chapters. His work has been translated into several languages, is often cited in the literature, and has been used by state and national governments to determine oral health policy. He is co-author of the most popular textbook of Oral Pathology, has been a reviewer for more than 26 medical and dental journals, and has been on the editorial boards of two international dental journals. He presents more research and continuing education seminars worldwide than any other oral pathologist, and his two informational websites, including the most popular oral path site (oralpath.com) receive approximately 7,000,000 hits annually. Recently, the Texas Medical Center gave him the Fleming and Davenport Award for original research.

Dr. Bouquot has been President of the American Board of Oral & Maxillofacial Pathology, the Eastern Society of Teachers of Oral Pathology, the Western Society of Teachers of Oral Pathology, the Organization of Teachers of Oral Diagnosis, 6 regional dental societies, and the West Virginia Division of the American Cancer Society. He has been a member of the Executive Council of the American Academy of Oral & Maxillofacial Pathology, the national Board of Directors of the ACS and the Board of Trustees for the 8-state South Atlantic Division of the ACS. As a member of the ACS national Research Committee he was among those responsible for reviewing and approving more than $90,000,000 in cancer research grants annually.

BIOPSY SERVICES:

Dr. Bouquot became the Director of Head & Neck Diagnostics in 1975. It was located in West Virginia University until 1994, when he started a private service in Morgantown, WV. By 2005 this mail-in biopsy service for dentists and oral surgeons received specimens from almost all surgical dental specialists in West Virginia, from 46 other states and 7 other countries. In 2004, Dr. Bouquot became the Director of Oral & Maxillofacial Diagnostics, the biopsy service of the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston. In 2005 he discontinued his private biopsy service, essentially giving it to the University of Texas. The UTHDB service is currently one of the 8 largest oral pathology biopsy services in America.

RESEARCH AND CONTINUING EDUCATION PRESENTATIONS (presenter=first author)

The following is a list of representative seminars, courses and research presentations given in 26 states and 22 other countries; seminars varied from "after dinner" lectures to 3-day courses. Estimated life-time total presentations given: >1,150. Approximately 1/3 of research talks have been given at universities, the rest were given at regional, national or international scientific meetings. Countries represented: Australia, Austria, Canada, Denmark, East Germany, England, France, Guatemala, India, Ireland, Japan, Mexico, Netherlands, Portugal, Scotland, Serbia, Singapore, South Africa, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, United States, West Germany. The majority of continuing education seminars have been given in and around West Virginia and Texas.

1. Bouquot J. Lumps and bumps. Star of the South meeting, Houston, Texas, April, 2011. (half day seminar)
2. Bouquot J. Autofluorescence of oral lesions. Western Society of Teachers of Oral Pathology, Galveston, Texas, October, 2010. (half day seminar)
3. Bouquot J. The abused mouth: oral effects of drugs and devices. Lone Star Dental Conference, San Antonio, Texas, September, 2010. (featured seminar)
4. Bouquot JE. Subcorneal acantholysis. International Association for Dental Research, Barcelona, Spain, July, 2010. (research paper)
5. Bouquot J, Neville B, Wright J. Oral pathologies we have known. West Virginia Dental Association, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, July, 2010. (featured seminar)
6. Bouquot JE, Cemental tears – explanation for apical radiolucencies with viable teeth. Biennial Congress, International Association of Oral Pathologists, Seoul, South Korea, July, 2010.
7. Bouquot JE, The poorly demarcated radiolucency of the jaws – a complete listing of possible diseases. Biennial Congress, International Association of Oral Pathologists, Seoul, South Korea, July, 2010. (invited discussion)
8. Bouquot J. Diagnostic devices for dangerous oral mucosa. International Symposium on Contemporary Dentistry. University of Nis, Nis, Serbia, June, 2010. (invited seminar)
9. Glueck CJ, McMahon RE, Bouquot JE, Khan NA, Khanal S, Wang P. T-786 polymorphism of the endothelial nitric oxide synthase gene and neuralgia-inducing cavitation osteonecrosis of the jaws. American Association for Dental Research, Washington DC, April, 2010. (poster)

APPENDIX B: COMMUNITY SERVICE:

Imperial Woods Homeowner's Association. Secretary for many years of a homeowner's association for a community of approximately 180 homes.

Area Seminars on Oral Disease. Dr. Bouquot initiated and conducted monthly case-presentation seminars for dentists in three West Virginia communities distantly located from WVU. Seminars were co-sponsored by the American Cancer Society and the Veterans' Administration. One ran from 1978 to 2003 (the others were discontinued after 12 and 15 years), apparently making it the longest running continuous education course in America.

Cheat Lake Rotary Club, Morgantown, WV. Dr. Bouquot has been Secretary, President-Elect and President. He has been on the Board of Directors for more than 6 years and has chaired several committees. While President, his club became the first among more than 33,000 Rotary clubs worldwide to achieve a 100% Paul Harris Fellows status for a second time (only 180 clubs have achieved it once).

Cheat Area Youth Soccer League. Dr. Bouquot is a co-founder and past President of this league, which now has approximately 400 young players; several teams have gone on to win statewide tournaments. This League and its officers were instrumental in getting soccer accepted into area high schools as an official school sport. Dr. Bouquot and his wife helped found and run the Soccer in Schools organization, which raised more than $6,000 annually to assist with the costs of soccer teams in area high schools. The League built and maintains 2 full soccer fields and a practice field for the Cheat Lake Middle School.

American Cancer Society. Dr. Bouquot has been President 8 times of the Monongalia County Unit. He has been Vice President twice, a member of the Board of Directors since 1978, and a chair of most committees at one time or another. During his first presidential term (3 years) income increased from $17,000/year to $78,000/year. During his second presidential term (2 years) income increased from $18,000/year to $172,000/year. During his third term (3 years) income increased from $148,000 to $270,000. During each of his terms volunteer activities of all types increased dramatically. He has also been extremely active at the state, regional and national levels in the ACS, including multiple times as state President or state Chairman of the Board, member of the Mid-Atlantic Division (4 states & Washington DC) Board of Trustees, member of the South Atlantic Division (7 states and Washington DC), member of the National Board of Directors, member of the National Assembly, and member on several national and regional committees. He has been given the St. George Medal, the highest national award given by the American Cancer Society to a volunteer, for his lifetime efforts in cancer control.

Cheat Lake Little League Baseball. Dr. Bouquot was President for 10 years of this youth baseball organization, during which time it had approximately 350 participants, with more than 100 adult volunteers to help operate it. He raised more than $12,000 annually to help defray the cost of running the League. The League built and still maintains 4 baseball fields and a concession stand for the Cheat Lake Middle School.

St. Paul Lutheran Church, Morgantown, WV. Dr. Bouquot has been President 5 times, Vice President twice, Council Secretary twice, chaired almost every committee at one time or another, taught Sunday School classes for 11 years (students aged 13-18), and was the Youth Group advisor for 14 years.

Community Advisory Committee, University High School, Morgantown, WV. Dr. Bouquot was a member for 4 years. An advisory group for the school administrators. Each high school statewide is mandated by law to have such a committee.

Outreach activities. Dr. Bouquot has given hundreds of lectures and seminars, often at his own expense, to a wide variety of local and statewide groups in West Virginia, from high school classes to Lions Clubs and Rotary Clubs, to dental, dental hygiene and dental assistant associations. He has also participated in and organized a variety of screening clinics and health fairs for local communities. He has, moreover, established a very strong reputation as an expert in the clinical diagnosis of oral diseases and has long traveled throughout West Virginia to see patients in private offices. In this capacity he has helped thousands of West Virginians, almost always at no expense to those patients. This activity led him to receive the Heebink Award, West Virginia University's highest award for service to the people of West Virginia. He was the first faculty member from the WVU Health Sciences Center to receive this award; to date only one other faculty member from that Center has been so honored.

West Virginia Bureau for Public Health. Dr. Bouquot is the Oral Cancer Control Coordinator and was the Dental Director for two years. While Director he re-organized and revitalized the failing statewide dental public health program. During his tenure in this position he initiated a statewide needs assessment survey of dental caries in children, developed a 10-year plan with appropriate goals and objectives, repeatedly met with public health dentists throughout the state, and greatly expanded the scope of public health dentistry in the state. He found additional funding for sealants for the teeth of indigent children and talked dozens of dentists into providing the service for very reduced fees so that many more children could be helped. He also began two epidemiology research projects which were subsequently published in dental journals. His efforts were so successful that the West Virginia Public Health Association gave him a special appreciation award upon completion of his task. He continues as Oral Cancer Control Coordinator for the state of West Virginia.

Educational website. Dr. Bouquot maintains a web-based textbook of oral pathology for patients and professionals interested in the clinical features, etiology, treatment and histopathology of diseases of the head and neck region. Thus far, the sections relating to mucosal and soft tissue lesions are published at www.maxillofacialcenter.com. A detailed section relating to ischemic bone disease is also available on the site. The site receives approximately 4,300,000 hits and 650,000 visitors each year.

Oral Pathology Website. Dr. Bouquot maintains a public interest website for oral pathologists and other health professionals interested in oral pathology topics and people. This site, The Oral Pathology Home Page (www.oralpath.com), has international advisors from six continents and lists organizations, institutions, people, meeting and continuing education courses in oral pathology and oral medicine. The site receives approximately 2,700,000 hits and 183,000 visitors each year.

Cheat Area Planning Commission. Dr. Bouquot was, for many years, a member of the county's subcommittee which deals with planning and zoning for the large area surrounding Cheat Lake, near Morgantown, West Virginia.

Foundation for Maxillofacial Research. Dr. Bouquot started a private, non-profit foundation to support research of diseases which affect the oral and maxillofacial region. Funds are intended for faculty and students of the West Virginia University and University of Texas schools of dentistry.

Christ the King Lutheran Church, Houston, Texas. Dr. Bouquot has been a Sunday school teacher for middle school students. He also ushers and helps with meal preparations for community outreach activities of the church.

Houston Food Bank. With a group from his church he regularly contributes his time to the Houston Food Bank.

2006 Texas Republican of the Year. Dr. Bouquot was selected by the Republican National Committee as one of a short list of outstanding Republicans in Texas; the list was published in the Wall Street Journal.

Barr Levy Award for Innovative Research. Dr. Bouquot initiated this award, funded from the oral surgical pathology biopsy service which he directs, for faculty of the University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston. It was created to honor Dr. Levy, a past DB faculty member and administrator, and co-author of one of the two most famous oral pathology texts of the twentieth century.

Council of Churches, Community Church Service Center, Houston Texas (consortium of 42 Houston churches, all denominations; more than 3,000 volunteers). Dr. Bouquot is a member of one of two administrative bodies of this nonprofit organization designed to help less fortunate Houstonians to find food, shelter, jobs, etc.
